

A phyllomacid slug (Meghimatium striatum)

- ❑ Native to Asia, introduced to HI, from where it is intercepted.
- ❑ Hosts: Usually found near water bodies or moist soil.
- ❑ Field ID: Adult about 50-70 mm long; mantle covers entire back of the animal, no shell, breathing pore opens on anterior end of body. Body tapers posteriorly, pale yellowish-brown with brown longitudinal lines on dorsum of mantle.

